

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 4/6/2024 4:00:00 AM

First name: Adam

Last name: Collins

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Restricting fixed anchors will create safety problems for climbers, which will in turn jeopardize the he safety of all. Allowing fixed anchors is an important part of our wilderness history and allows the full extent of wilderness exploration in a responsible and equitable manner. Restricting new routes to "existing climbing opportunities" will bring confusion to land managers in terms of enforcement and degrade recreation opportunities and safety for the general public.