

I have lived on the Western Slope since 1972 and grew up here. The population growth I have witnessed in my lifetime, now 46 years in Grand Junction, has more than quadrupled. Now more than ever, it is imperative we maintain and mandate for wilderness designation. The areas I have fished and hunted on have been severely impacted by these population explosions.