BENEFIT	Contributor(s	Backpacking trails need at least two days of hiking	Motorized / Non- motorized	Consumptive / Non-consumptive	Infrastructure	Federal	State	Local Private	Urgency/Priority	Change Since 2006
		with overnight camping at beginning, middle and end, Safe trails accessible from multiple locations. Minimized user conflicts on trails. Trails are well			Trails, parking, toilets,
BACKPACKING	Richard Lutz	maintained, blazed and passable. Minimal impact to trails (and viewshed) from logging, mineral extraction, utilities, right of ways, etc. Congressionally designated		No	trailhead kiosks,	Tom Jenkins Dam	Burr Oak State Park, Wallace	Village of Shawne Buckeye Trail Ass	ociation (Imhoff Pr	reserve)
		National Scenic and Historic Trails managed according to designated policies. Recreation facilities that serve trail users and enhance the hiking experience should be provided.	8		wayfinding signage
BIRDING: Provides habitat for rare bird populations	Brian Blair	diverse habitats, emaphasis on mature woods, safe parking, cell service	No	No	Parking
BOATING: canoeing, ayaking BOATING: fishing,		a safe parking, trails, un-improved ramps	No Yes	No Yes	None Ramps, parking, toilets
BOATING: fishing, electric, motorized(?) CAMPING: dispersed	Matt Misicka,	Safe off-road parking, roadside parking, fire rings, , camping for long-distance trails.	?	No	Parking, firerings, potable water
CAMPING: in	Rlcha.rdl.utz	Tent sites, RV hook-ups, cabins, teepees, sites for use by long-distance trail users, NEAR trailheads, activity			Roads, LEVEL RV parking, organized	John Michel RIchard Lutz	recreational destinations. Trute draw first timers and	8	Yes	toilets, potable water, doggy daycare services.
COLLECTING	John Michel	owners Rules. Local vendors	No	Yes	None
COMMISSARY: Supplies, gear, maps, souveniers	, John Michel	Locally sourced items = jobs for local residents.	No	No	Buildings, or maybe permitted Vendors using temporary/weekend tents like in art shows,
					(ex-10x10 Tents)		Division of Wildlife			LOST: Mead Corporation Lands: most of the 140,000 acres (9
							(213,574 acres, 95% open to public hunting), Division of Forestry (200,620 acres, 95%			different southern Ohio counties) owned by Mead were open for public hunting, but since 2006 80%
FISHING: Provides habitat for warm- water gamefish	Matt Misicka	unpolluted & PH balanced/friendly to aquatic life a rivers, streams, lake and ponds, multiple types of access	No	Yes	None	National Forests (240,000 acres), Wildlife Refuges	hunting), Division of Parks (122,838 acres, some open-	operated collaboratively with DOW for	public hunting, fishing, trapping.	of that acreage was sold to private interests (including out-of-state hunting leases). About 20% is now species						(8,945 a cres)	hunting, some controlled hunts), Division of Natural Areas and Preserves (16,014 acres, some controlled	8	(2) Active management for target species.	held by DOW. LOST: About 25,000 acres of AEP holdings in Meigs, Muskingum, and Coshocton Counties have been sold to private
F ORAGING :collecting							hunts)			interest and lost to public hunting trapping, & fishing.
consumable plants food/medicinal) GEOCACHING	John Michel	Permissible now? Maybe create virtual caches to	No No	Yes No	None None
GINSENG GATHERING		Safe trails accessible from multiple locations,	No	Yes	None
		minimized user conflicts on trail, trails that are well-maintained, blazed, and passable. Trails are well maintained, blazed and passable. Minimal impact to trails (and viewshed) from logging, mineral extraction,			Trails, parking, toilets, campsites, shelters,
HIKING	RIchard Lutz	utilities, right of ways, etc. Congressionally designated National Scenic and Historic Trails managed according to designated policies. Recreation facilities that serve	INO	No	potable water, trailheads, trailhead kiosks, wayfinding signage.	Tom Jenkins Dam	Burr Oak State Park, Wallace	Village of Shawne Buckeye Trail Ass	ociation (Imhoff Pr	eserve) trail users and enhance the hiking experience should be provided.  trails, water for horses, trails should be open year round, cross country riding should be accessible, water HORSEBACK RIDING		for horses and hitching post availability. History and land mark signage riding to points of interest, increased trail looping, Safe scenic, sustainable trails,		Trails	Trails, parking, toilets, corrals, troughs, tie-post, spurs to scenic areas with tie post. No logging or clear cutting along recreational trails for the scenic and use value to usse. 911 APP points of access for recreational			handicap mounting block users and rescue.					Division of Wildlife (213,574 acres, 95% open to			LOST: Mead Corporation Lands: most of the 140,000 acres (9 different southern Ohio counties)
						National Forests (240,000	public hunting), Division of Forestry (200,620 acres, 95% open to public			owned by Mead were open for public hunting, but since 2006 80% of that acreage was sold to private
HUNTING : deer	Matt Misicka	diverse habitat, safe parking, limited use/limited disturbance (seasonally?)	No	Yes	Parking	acres), Wildlife Refuges (8,945 acres)	hunting), Division of Parks (122,838 acres, some open-hunting, some controlled	collaboratively with DOW for public hunting,	(2) Active	interests (including out-of-state hunting leases). About 20% is now held by DOW. LOST: About 25,000
							hunts), Division of Natural Areas and Preserves (16,014 acres, some controlled hunts)	8	management for target species.	acres of AEP holdings in Meigs, Muskingum, and Coshocton Counties have been sold to private interest and lost to public hunting trapping, & fishing.  LOST: Mead Corporation Lands:
							Division of Wildlife (213,574 acres, 95% open to public hunting), Division of Forestry (200,620 acres, 95%		` '	most of the 140,000 acres (9 different southern Ohio counties) owned by Mead were open for public hunting, but since 2006 80%
HUNTING : turkey	Matt Misicka	mature hardwoods, safe parking, limited use/limited disturbance (seasonally?)	No	Yes	Parking	(240,000 acres), Wildlife Refuges	open to public hunting), Division of Parks (122,838 acres, some open-	operated collaboratively with DOW for	available for public hunting, fishing, trapping.	of that acreage was sold to private interests (including out-of-state hunting leases). About 20% is now
						(8,945 a cres)	hunting, some controlled hunts), Division of Natural Areas and Preserves (16,014 acres, some controlled	8	(2) Active management for target species.	held by DOW. LOST: About 25,000 acres of AEP holdings in Meigs, Muskingum, and Coshocton Counties have been sold to private hunts)			interest and lost to public hunting, trapping, & fishing.  LOST: Mead Corporation Lands:
							Division of Wildlife (213,574 acres, 95% open to public hunting), Division of	- R	(1) No net loss of	most of the 140,000 acres (9 different southern Ohio counties) owned by Mead were open for
HUNTING : squirrel	Matt Misicka	mature hardwoods, safe parking, limited use/limited	No	Yes	Parking	(240,000 a cres),	Forestry (200,620 acres, 95% open to public hunting), Division of Parks	AEP (60,000 acres operated collaboratively	public lands available for public hunting,	public hunting, but since 2006 80% of that acreage was sold to private interests (including out-of-state on and an		disturbance (seasonally?)	0	. 63		Wildlife Refuges (8,945 acres)	(122,838 acres, some open- hunting, some controlled hunts), Division of Natural	8	(2) Active management for	hunting leases). About 20% is now held by DOW. LOST: About 25,000 acres of AEP holdings in Meigs,
							Areas and Preserves (16,014 acres, some controlled hunts)		target species.	Muskingum, and Coshocton Counties have been sold to private interest and lost to public hunting, trapping, & fishing.
							Division of Wildlife (213,574 acres, 95% open to			LOST: Mead Corporation Lands: most of the 140,000 acres (9 different southern Ohio counties)
						National Forests	public hunting), Division of Forestry (200,620 acres, 95% open to public	AEP (60,000 a cres operated	public lands available for	owned by Mead were open for public hunting, but since 2006 80% of that acreage was sold to private
HUNTING : rabbit	Matt Misicka	open fields, open woods, safe parking, limited use/limited disturbance (seasonally?)	No	Yes	Parking	(240,000 acres), Wildlife Refuges (8,945 acres)	hunting), Division of Parks (122,838 acres, some open- hunting, some controlled hunts), Division of Natural	collaboratively with DOW for public hunting, fishing transing	(2) Active	interests (including out-of-state hunting leases). About 20% is now held by DOW. LOST: About 25,000 acres of AEP holdings in Meigs,
							Areas and Preserves (16,014 acres, some controlled hunts)	. N	target species.	Muskingum, and Coshocton Counties have been sold to private interest and lost to public hunting, BMP's for ruffed grouse (habitat needs change			To improve grouse numing in the WNF: (1) maps depicting forest age classes and varying					trapping, & fishing.  LOST: Mead Corporation Lands:
		throughout the year): Diverse forest age classes distributed within a mosaic at a landscape scale including: (1) Intermix of conifers at lower densities			habitat types suitable for upland game birds (similar to MI HUNT) (2) hunter walking trails free from	,	Division of Wildlife (213,574 acres, 95% open to public hunting), Division of Forestry (200,620 acres, 95%			most of the 140,000 acres (9 different southern Ohio counties) owned by Mead were open for public hunting, but since 2006 80%
HUNTING : ruffed grouse	Heather Shaw (RGS Regional	for thermal cover, (2) Intermix of mature trees and stands that provide winter food source (mosaic), (3)  Dense young forest for spring through summer breeding cover, (4) Drumming and nesting cover	No	Yes		(240,000 a cres),	open to public hunting), Division of Parks (122,838 acres, some open-	operated collaboratively with DOW for	available for public hunting,	of that acreage was sold to private interests (including out-of-state hunting leases). About 20% is now Biologist)	includes interspersed cuts 20 acres or larger 0-15 years old adjacent to mature stands, (5) Brood rearing habitat includes pole sized stands with understory			areas with informational kiosks adjacent to hunter walking trails away from busy roads or intersections, (4) mapped hunter		hunting, some controlled hunts), Division of Natural Areas and Preserves (16,014	R X	(2) Active management for target species.	held by DOW. LOST: About 25,000 acres of AEP holdings in Meigs, Muskingum, and Coshocton Counties have been sold to private including alder, hazel, ironwood, cherry, etc. for soft mast food source as well as herbaceous openings.			walking trail system to improve access and use of WNF, (5) engagement-project		acres, some controlled hunts)			Counties have been sold to private interest and lost to public hunting, trapping, & fishing.
							Division of Wildlife (213,574 acres, 95% open to	R V		LOST: Mead Corporation Lands: most of the 140,000 acres (9 different southern Ohio counties)
		wetlands, safe parking limited use/limited				National Forests (240,000 acres),	public hunting), Division of Forestry (200,620 acres, 95% open to public hunting), Division of Parks	8		owned by Mead were open for public hunting, but since 2006 80% of that acreage was sold to private interests (including out-of-state
HUNTING : waterfowl	Matt Misicka	a wetlands, safe parking, limited use/limited a disturbance (seasonally?)	No	Yes	Parking	Wildlife Refuges (8,945 acres)	(122,838 acres, some open- hunting, some controlled hunts), Division of Natural	with DOW for public hunting,	fishing, trapping. (2) Active	hunting leases). About 20% is now held by DOW. LOST: About 25,000
							Areas and Preserves (16,014 acres, some controlled hunts)		target species.	Muskingum, and Coshocton Counties have been sold to private interest and lost to public hunting,
MOUNTAIN BIKING		trails  Very tight season, will need monitoring and publicized	No	Trails	Trails, parking, toilets					trapping, & fishing.
MUSHROOM HUNTING	John Michel	awareness campaign to draw hunters when the time is right. Links to Educational sources about types of mushrooms and how to cook them is needed too.	No	Yes	None
OHM RIDING:	John Michel	Trails: sustainable single-track, USFS specified at 18" track width, like mountain bikers, designed to challenge riders not to see how fast they can go, but			Trails, parking, toilets, potable water, motorcycles	Steve Salisbury	rther how smoothly through serpentine trails which may include narrow openings between adjacent trees, rocks and other natural barriers; restrooms, drinking water sources, outdoor & indoor showers to cool off	Yes	Trails	informational trail signs not just nails with colored plastic washers trails, restrooms, drinking water sources, outdoor &			Trails, parking, toilets, potable water,
OHV RIDING: atv	John Michel	indoor showers to cool off and de-mud riders and their atv.	Yes	Trails	informational trail signs not just nails with colored nlastic washers Irails, parking, toilets,
OHV RIDING: utv	John Michel	trails, restrooms, drinking water sources, outdoor & indoor showers to cool off and de-mud riders and their utv.	Yes	Trails	potable water, informational trail signs not just nails with colored
ORIENTEERING PHOTOGRAPHY: nature, photo		Establish marked courses for beginner, intermedite, ad	No No	No No	Parking None
competitions PICNICKING PUBLIC SHOOTING		Doos one exist on the WNE2	No	No	Trails, parking, toilets
RANGE ROADS: public access, emergency	John Michel	Does one exist on the WNF?  Safe, wide enough for larger campers, signage, directions to attractions, maps	Yes	Yes	Roads, signs
SCENERY: scenic drives, scenic byways SPECIAL AREAS: old		maps, signage	Yes	No	Signs
growth forest remanants SPECIAL EVENTS:			No	No	None
weddings, outdoor ampitheater		Check out Indian Lake SP new pool & commisary. It's	No	Yes	Structures, parking, toilets  Swimming pool, near a commisary that sells ice SWIMMING	John Michel	near it. In the past, the lake side spots were the most desireable.	No	No	cream bars and drinks. (Jobs & revenue & happy kids I
FRAINING : facilities for public to learn outdoor skills	John Michel	buildings, outdoor ampitheaters, Archery/Axe n Hatchet/Olympic Air Rifle/.22 rifle RANGES (NB Platt River SP has NRA sponsored facilities for these kinds of things so based on that model	No	Yes	Structures, parking, toilets
. J. JAIII3		for these kinds of things so based on that model maybe we can partner with them to get this done.)					Division of Wildlife			LOST: Mead Corporation Lands: most of the 140,000 acres (9
	N/a ++						(213,574 acres, 95% open to public hunting), Division of Forestry (200,620 acres, 95%	- 8		different southern Ohio counties) owned by Mead were open for public hunting, but since 2006 80%
FRAPPING : Beaver	Matt Misicka, Keith Daniels	forested ponds, lakes, and rivers; increased offering of permits to allow trapping beyond nuisance permits.	Sometimes	Yes	Parking, OHV trails to allow access to more remote areas.	(240,000 acres), Wildlife Refuges	open to public hunting), Division of Parks (122,838 acres, some open-	operated collaboratively with DOW for		of that acreage was sold to private interests (including out-of-state hunting leases). About 20% is now
	(OSTA)					(8,945 a cres)	hunting, some controlled hunts), Division of Natural Areas and Preserves (16,014 acres, some controlled	8	(2) Active management for target species.	held by DOW. LOST: About 25,000 acres of AEP holdings in Meigs, Muskingum, and Coshocton Counties have been sold to private hunts)			interest and lost to public hunting, trapping, & fishing.
							Division of Wildlife (213,574 acres, 95% open to public hunting), Division of		‡ `` '	LOST: Mead Corporation Lands: most of the 140,000 acres (9 different southern Ohio counties) owned by Mead were open for
「RAPPING : Otter	Matt Misick:	a rivers, lakes, and marshes, minimal human disturbance	Sometimes	Yes	Parking, trails to allow access to more remote	(240,000 a cres),	Forestry (200,620 acres, 95% open to public hunting), Division of Parks	AEP (60,000 a cres operated collaboratively	public lands available for public hunting,	public hunting, but since 2006 80% of that acreage was sold to private interests (including out-of-state
.                                    	2.500				areas.	Wildlife Refuges (8,945 acres)	(122,838 acres, some open- hunting, some controlled hunts), Division of Natural Areas and Preserves (16,014	8	(2) Active	hunting leases). About 20% is now held by DOW. LOST: About 25,000 acres of AEP holdings in Meigs, Muskingum, and Coshocton acres, some controlled hunts)		JSPECIES.	Counties have been sold to private interest and lost to public hunting, trapping, & fishing.
WILDLIFE : Non-game species, bear	Matt Misicka	a upland hardwoods, 120-150 sq mi for males, 20-50 for fe	No	No	None					_
OTHER NOTES ACCESS:	1 - 1	2 d 2 2 2 2 2 2 2
ICCESS.	Jonn Michel	adequate cell phone coverage			cell towers  EMT Stations near critical

ACCESS: roads

John Michel

MARKETING:
advertising campaign in schools, public service
announcements

ACCESS: roads

John Michel

MARKETING:
advertising campaign in schools, public service
announcements

Adequate roads, signs with size limits indicated, etc...

Dedicated NPO relationship building staffers. Create a few jobs to promote reaching out. Online, social media, at visitor center(s), trailbead kiosks, etc...