

From:
To: FS-comments-alaska-tongass-juneau
Subject: MGRA
Date: Thursday, February 20, 2020 7:20:16 PM

It is a bad investment to devote much money to building infrastructure closer and closer to the disappearing glacier. There is less and less of interest near a vanishing chunk of ice. The ice is not a renewable resource in our lifetimes or many of those to come. Many of the proposed developments will put more people all over the place, to the serious detriment of wildlife that use the area. The wildlife species are a renewable resource that should be protected.