

Dear Ms. Linda Jackson,

I think that it is better to have a regulated mine operating in the US, Canada or Finland (where I currently live) than unchecked mining in an unregulated part of the world.

I assume that if the mine does begin operation Midas will be held accountable for any unexpected negative externality of production. I see this as desirable; certainly as a contributor to Greenpeace and even as a shareholder of Midas.

Sincerely,

Steven Hall

Name: Steven Hall