

The Stibnite mine should be a super fund clean up site to protect the NF Salmon river from further degradation. This new project negatively impacts this area with, of all things, an open PIT mine above the N F Salmon river. Why would Idaho want such a mess to be expanded? The profits go to Canada, the environmental impacts stay in Idaho. Bad for Idaho good for Canada,, sorry cannot support such a perverse proposal. Let Canada dig up its landscape not Idaho.

Name: Norm Nelson