

DEAR MS JACKSON,

The mine at Stibnite has been around Idaho for generations. It is not time to shut it down, but to allow it to keep providing jobs for Idaho, plus the added benefit of bringing the mine up to current environmental standards for operation and clean up issues that were created from a time with lower standards.

Let's keep it going.

Thanks,

Steve Fredriksen

Name: Stephen Fredriksen