| 1967 | Doy Reed Head Fences was always in bad shape. Run more wild horses than cows. I didn't know 180 to 200 wild horses. It had a big snow storm ust smashed the fence down. Nobody was cowboy enough to drive em back. They fixed the fences. Old ranger wanted them gone because he was afriad they's make a wild horse refuge. I'll buld the traps. whatever you get is yours. They were unbranded and on fors=rest service lands. We caught 187 horses and hauled them to sale. These were wild horses but we pretty well cleaned it up. | | | | | |

| 1967 | This story was in the Court Case: BIG Snow Storm, fence came down because of snow. went down than 800 made their way into Black Mesa. These were supposedly ferals. This is a higher altitude (rim) than the mesa where there is more graing. This was way before the chedeski Fire, it was very very thick. There is no way they could have gotten all the horses out of the forest. | Stacy Sanchez Affidavit | | | | |
