

Dear Forest Supervisor Danika Carlson,

Don't cut down mature fire resistant trees that are holding massive amounts of carbon. Sell them for carbon offsets if you must find a way to make money on them. That way they can remain standing for future generations

Sincerely,
Courtney Slider
2159 Tina Ct
Arcata, CA 95521