

On the north side boulders block river crossing and main 123 is a dead end at this point.

Using 123-A on the south side, Boulders block route upstream at first crossing at the tight palisades.