

From: Richard Chace III [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 07, 2017 10:53 AM
To: FS-travel-comments-rocky-mountain-shoshone
Subject: Shoshone National Forest

The reduction to the amount of public land that is currently available for snowmobiling is an un-needed change anywhere in Wyoming. The snowmobile community is a strong, respectful, growing group of tax- paying men and women who already have a very limited playing ground. A reduction in lands will only compound users in other areas resulting in congestion and further conflict.

Trey Chace
[REDACTED]