

Dear Chief Moore and Director Stone-Manning:

I strongly support protecting old-growth and mature forests on Bureau of Land Management (BLM) and Forest Service lands. I was excited to learn about President Biden's Executive Order 14072 that calls on your agencies to define, inventory and conserve these forests for at-risk species, climate mitigation, and other benefits for wildlife and people.

I urge the Forest Service and BLM to:

Adopt a rule that ensures that old-growth and mature forest protections will endure through time.

Protect old and mature trees from logging.

Start now by halting old-growth logging projects that are in development. Our planet depends on trees as we do to live!

Thank you for considering these recommendations. Protecting America's old-growth and mature forests is one of the most important actions the Forest Service and BLM can take to combat the extinction and climate crises.

Sincerely,
Duane Gibson
Vail, AZ

Dear Chief Moore and Director Stone-Manning:

I strongly support protecting old-growth and mature forests on Bureau of Land Management (BLM) and Forest Service lands. I was excited to learn about President Biden's Executive Order 14072 that calls on your agencies to define, inventory and conserve these forests for at-risk species, climate mitigation, and other benefits for wildlife and people.

I urge the Forest Service and BLM to:

Adopt a rule that ensures that old-growth and mature forest protections will endure through time.

Protect old and mature trees from logging.

Start now by halting old-growth logging projects that are in development.

Thank you for considering these recommendations. Protecting America's old-growth and mature forests is one of the most important actions the Forest Service and BLM can take to combat the extinction and climate crises.

It is urgent to protect forests NOW!

Sincerely,
Daryl. Gale
Los Angeles, CA

Dear Chief Moore and Director Stone-Manning:

My family and I strongly support protecting old-growth and mature forests on Bureau of Land Management (BLM) and Forest Service lands. We were excited to learn about President Biden's Executive Order 14072 that calls on your agencies to define, inventory and conserve these forests for at-risk species, climate mitigation, and other benefits for wildlife and people.

We urge the Forest Service and BLM to please:

Adopt a rule that ensures that old-growth and mature forest protections will endure through time.

Protect old and mature trees from logging.

Start now by halting old-growth logging projects that are in development.

Thank you for considering these recommendations. Protecting America's old-growth and mature forests is one of the most important actions the Forest Service and BLM can take to combat the extinction and climate crises.

Sincerely,
Donna Beal
Del Mar, CA

Dear Chief Moore and Director Stone-Manning:

Old growth forests are a jewel of nature. They provide so many attributes for people, wildlife, birds, and are the life breath of the earth. I strongly support protecting old-growth and mature forests on Bureau of Land Management (BLM) and Forest Service lands. I was excited to learn about President Biden's Executive Order 14072 that calls on your agencies to define, inventory and conserve these forests for at-risk species, climate mitigation, and other benefits for wildlife and people.

I urge the Forest Service and BLM to:

Adopt a rule that ensures that old-growth and mature forest protections will endure through time.

Protect old and mature trees from logging.

Start now by halting old-growth logging projects that are in development.

Thank you for considering these recommendations. Protecting America's old-growth and mature forests is one of the most important actions the Forest Service and BLM can take to combat the extinction and climate crises.

Sincerely,
Linda Rossin
Lk Hopatcong, NJ

Dear Chief Moore and Director Stone-Manning:

I am extremely concerned about the continuing degradation of our planet and its natural resources, including wildlife on land and sea, not to mention humans; therefore, I strongly support protecting old-growth and mature forests on Bureau of Land Management (BLM) and Forest Service lands. I was excited to learn about President Biden's Executive Order 14072 that calls on your agencies to define, inventory and conserve these forests for at-risk species, climate mitigation, and other benefits for wildlife and people.

I urge the Forest Service and BLM to:

Adopt a rule that ensures that old-growth and mature forest protections will endure through time.

Protect old and mature trees from logging.

Start now by halting old-growth logging projects that are in development.

Thank you for considering these recommendations. Protecting America's old-growth and mature forests is one of the most important actions the Forest Service and BLM can take to combat the extinction and climate crises.

Sincerely,
AA Lloyd
Asheville, NC

Dear Chief Moore and Director Stone-Manning:

I strongly support protecting old-growth and mature forests on Bureau of Land Management (BLM) and Forest Service lands. I was excited to learn about President Biden's Executive Order 14072 that calls on your agencies to define, inventory and conserve these forests for at-risk species, climate mitigation, and other benefits for wildlife and people.

I urge the Forest Service and BLM to:

Adopt a rule that ensures that old-growth and mature forest protections will endure through time.

Protect old and mature trees from logging.

Start now by halting old-growth logging projects that are in development.

Thank you for considering these recommendations. Protecting America's old-growth and mature forests is one of the most important actions the Forest Service and BLM can take to combat the extinction and climate crises. Nothing could be more important for addressing the climate crisis than saving old-growth forest.

Sincerely,
Randall Hartman
San Clemente, CA

Dear Chief Moore and Director Stone-Manning:

I strongly support protecting old-growth and mature forests on Bureau of Land Management (BLM) and Forest Service lands. I was excited to learn about President Biden's Executive Order 14072 that calls on your agencies to define, inventory and conserve these forests for at-risk species, climate mitigation, and other benefits for wildlife and people. IT IS SO IMPORTANT THAT WE PROTECT THE CARBON CAPTURING ABILITIES OF OUR OLD-GROWTH AND MATURE FORESTS. THEY ALSO PROVIDE OTHER RESOURCES AND HOMES FOR DIVERSE ECOSYSTEMS AND ANIMALS. I urge the Forest Service and BLM to:

Adopt a rule that ensures that old-growth and mature forest protections will endure through time.

Protect old and mature trees from logging.

Start now by halting old-growth logging projects that are in development.

Thank you for considering these recommendations. Protecting America's old-growth and mature forests is one of the most important actions the Forest Service and BLM can take to combat the extinction and climate crises.

Sincerely,
Stephanie Hammond
Flagstaff, AZ

Dear Chief Moore and Director Stone-Manning:

I strongly support protecting old-growth and mature forests on Bureau of Land Management (BLM) and Forest Service lands. I was excited to learn about President Biden's Executive Order 14072 that calls on your agencies to define, inventory and conserve these forests for at-risk species, climate mitigation, and other benefits for wildlife and people.

I urge the Forest Service and BLM to:

Adopt a rule that ensures that old-growth and mature forest protections will endure through time.

Protect old and mature trees from logging.

Start now by halting old-growth logging projects that are in development.

Thank you for considering these recommendations. Protecting America's old-growth and mature forests is one of the most important actions the Forest Service and BLM can take to combat the extinction and climate crises.

Sincerely, Alan Solomon

My name is Alan Solomon. I live in southern California. I completely agree with and strongly support the above statement/petition today and for many years and generations to come.

Dear Chief Moore and Director Stone-Manning:

I strongly support protecting old-growth and mature forests on Bureau of Land Management (BLM) and Forest Service lands. I was excited to learn about Executive Order 14072 that calls on your agencies to define, inventory and conserve these forests.

I urge the Forest Service and BLM to:

Adopt a rule that ensures that old-growth and mature forest protections will endure through time.

Protect old and mature trees from logging.

Start now by halting old-growth logging projects that are in development.

Thank you for considering these recommendations. Protecting America's old-growth and mature forests is one of the most important actions the Forest Service and BLM can take to combat the extinction crisis.

Sincerely, Lisa Ferguson
Delmar, NY

Dear Chief Moore and Director Stone-Manning:

As an environmentally motivated voter who knows that old growth trees in intact forests are our best buffer against the growing climate crisis, I strongly support protecting old-growth and mature forests on Bureau of Land Management (BLM) and Forest Service lands. I was excited to learn about President Biden's Executive Order 14072 that calls on your agencies to define, inventory and conserve these forests for at-risk species, climate mitigation, and other benefits for wildlife and people.

I urge the Forest Service and BLM to:

Adopt a rule that ensures that old-growth and mature forest protections will endure through time.

Protect old and mature trees from logging.

Start now by halting old-growth logging projects that are in development.

Thank you for considering these recommendations. Protecting America's old-growth and mature forests is one of the most important actions the Forest Service and BLM can take to combat the extinction and climate crises.

Sincerely,
Linda Carroll
Spokane, WA

Dear Chief Moore and Director Stone-Manning:

I strongly support protecting old-growth and mature forests on public taxpayer lands. I was excited to learn about President Biden's Executive Order 14072 that calls on your agencies to define, inventory and conserve these forests for at-risk species, climate mitigation, and other benefits for wildlife and people.

I urge the Forest Service and BLM to:

Adopt a rule that ensures that old-growth and mature forest protections will endure through time.

Protect old and mature trees from logging.

Start now by halting old-growth logging projects that are in development.

Protecting America's old-growth and mature forests is one of the most important actions the Forest Service and BLM can take to combat extinction and climate crises.

Sincerely,
Laurie Schmidt
Delta, OH

Dear Chief Moore and Director Stone-Manning:

I strongly support protecting old-growth and mature forests on Bureau of Land Management (BLM) and Forest Service lands. I was excited to learn about President Biden's Executive Order 14072 that calls on your agencies to define, inventory and conserve these forests for at-risk species, climate mitigation, and other benefits for wildlife and people.

I urge the Forest Service and BLM to:

Adopt a rule that ensures that old-growth and mature forest protections will endure through time.

Protect old and mature trees from logging.

Start now by halting old-growth logging projects that are in development.

Thank you for considering these recommendations. Protecting America's old-growth and mature forests is one of the most important actions the Forest Service and BLM can take to combat the extinction and climate crises. Once the forest are gone, do you know what that means...The end.

Sincerely,
Debra Webb Webb

Dear Chief Moore and Director Stone-Manning:

I strongly support protecting old-growth and mature forests on Bureau of Land Management (BLM) and Forest Service lands.

I urge the Forest Service and BLM to:

Adopt a rule that ensures that old-growth and mature forest protections will endure through time.

Protect old and mature trees from logging.

Start now by halting old-growth logging projects that are in development.

Thank you for considering these recommendations.

Sincerely,
Roland Goyette
Vancouver, WA

Dear Chief Moore and Director Stone-Manning:

Earth can't wait!

I strongly support protecting old-growth and mature forests on Bureau of Land Management (BLM) and Forest Service lands. I was excited to learn about President Biden's Executive Order 14072 that calls on your agencies to define, inventory and conserve these forests for at-risk species, climate mitigation, and other benefits for wildlife and people.

I urge the Forest Service and BLM to:

Adopt a rule that ensures that old-growth and mature forest protections will endure through time.

Protect old and mature trees from logging.

Start now by halting old-growth logging projects that are in development.

Thank you for considering these recommendations. Protecting America's old-growth and mature forests is one of the most important actions the Forest Service and BLM can take to combat the extinction and climate crises.

Sincerely,
Louis Discepola
Hackensack, NJ

Dear Chief Moore and Director Stone-Manning:

Please read and heed the following letter, which I loudly echo:

I strongly support protecting old-growth and mature forests on Bureau of Land Management (BLM) and Forest Service lands. I was excited to learn about President Biden's Executive Order 14072 that calls on your agencies to define, inventory and conserve these forests for at-risk species, climate mitigation, and other benefits for wildlife and people.

I urge the Forest Service and BLM to:

Adopt a rule that ensures that old-growth and mature forest protections will endure through time.

Protect old and mature trees from logging.

Start now by halting old-growth logging projects that are in development.

Thank you for considering these recommendations. Protecting America's old-growth and mature forests is one of the most important actions the Forest Service and BLM can take to combat the extinction and climate crises.

Sincerely,
Greg Coutinho
New York, NY

Dear Chief Moore and Director Stone-Manning:

I strongly support protecting old-growth and mature forests on Bureau of Land Management (BLM) and Forest Service lands. I was excited to learn about President Biden's Executive Order 14072 that calls on your agencies to define, inventory and conserve these forests for at-risk species, climate mitigation, and other benefits for wildlife and people.

I urge the Forest Service and BLM to:

Adopt a rule that ensures that old-growth and mature forest protections will endure through time.

Protect old and mature trees from logging.

Start now by halting old-growth logging projects that are in development.

Thank you for considering these recommendations. Protecting America's old-growth and mature forests is one of the most important actions the Forest Service and BLM can take to combat the extinction and climate crises. Please don't take homes from our wildlife

Sincerely,
Brooke Williams
Montoursville, PA

Dear Chief Moore and Director Stone-Manning:

WHY SHOULD WE EVEN HAVE TO ASK?

I strongly support protecting old-growth and mature forests on Bureau of Land Management (BLM) and Forest Service lands. I was excited to learn about President Biden's Executive Order 14072 that calls on your agencies to define, inventory and conserve these forests for at-risk species, climate mitigation, and other benefits for wildlife and people.

I urge the Forest Service and BLM to:

Adopt a rule that ensures that old-growth and mature forest protections will endure through time.

Protect old and mature trees from logging.

Start now by halting old-growth logging projects that are in development.

Thank you for considering these recommendations. Protecting America's old-growth and mature forests is one of the most important actions the Forest Service and BLM can take to combat the extinction and climate crises.

Sincerely, Donald Weber
Vidalia, GA

To Chief Moore and Director Stone-Manning:

Our public lands administered by USFS and BLM must protect old-growth and mature forests by adopting a rule that ensures that old-growth and mature forest protections will endure through time, that protects old and mature trees from logging, and immediately halts old-growth logging projects that are in development.

Paul M. Grove

Dear Chief Moore and Director Stone-Manning:

I strongly support protecting old-growth and mature forests on Bureau of Land Management (BLM) and Forest Service lands. I was excited to learn about President Biden's Executive Order 14072 that calls on your agencies to define, inventory and conserve these forests for at-risk species, climate mitigation, and other benefits for wildlife and people.

I urge the Forest Service and BLM to:

Adopt a rule that ensures that old-growth and mature forest protections will endure through time.

Protect old and mature trees from logging.

Start now by halting old-growth logging projects that are in development.

Our environment and so many species rely on these old growth forests, and we need to take every action necessary to protect them.

Thank you for considering these recommendations. Protecting America's old-growth and mature forests is one of the most important actions the Forest Service and BLM can take to combat the extinction and climate crises.

Sincerely,
Dana Atnip
Ferndale, MI

Dear Chief Moore and Director Stone-Manning:

ANIMALS cannot speak for themselves, so i will speak for them. These forests are homes to millions of creatures. there is no human undertaking that is as valuable as their lives.

I urge the Forest Service and BLM to:

Adopt a rule that ensures that old-growth and mature forest protections will endure through time.

Protect old and mature trees from logging.

Start now by halting old-growth logging projects that are in development.

Thank you for considering these recommendations. Protecting America's old-growth and mature forests is one of the most important actions the Forest Service and BLM can take to combat the extinction and climate crises.

Sincerely,
Carrie H Somero
Pahoa, HI

Dear Chief Moore and Director Stone-Manning:

Save earth I strongly support protecting old-growth and mature forests on Bureau of Land Management (BLM) and Forest Service lands. I was excited to learn about President Biden's Executive Order 14072 that calls on your agencies to define, inventory and conserve these forests for at-risk species, climate mitigation, and other benefits for wildlife and people.

I urge the Forest Service and BLM to:

Adopt a rule that ensures that old-growth and mature forest protections will endure through time.

Protect old and mature trees from logging.

Start now by halting old-growth logging projects that are in development.

Thank you for considering these recommendations. Protecting America's old-growth and mature forests is one of the most important actions the Forest Service and BLM can take to combat the extinction and climate crises.

Sincerely,
Robert Puca
Brooklyn, NY

Dear Chief Moore and Director Stone-Manning:

I want to sign on in support of protecting old-growth and mature forests on Bureau of Land Management (BLM) and Forest Service lands.

I was happy to learn about President Biden's Executive Order 14072 that calls on your agencies to define, inventory and conserve these forests for at-risk species, climate mitigation, and other benefits for wildlife and people.

I urge the Forest Service and BLM to:

Adopt a rule that ensures that old-growth and mature forest protections will endure through time.

Protect old and mature trees from logging.

Start now by halting old-growth logging projects that are in development.

Thank you for considering these recommendations. Protecting America's old-growth and mature forests is one of the most important actions the Forest Service and BLM can take to combat the extinction and climate crises.

Sincerely,
Philip Hult
Mahomet, IL

Dear Chief Moore and Director Stone-Manning:

I strongly support protecting old-growth and mature forests on Bureau of Land Management (BLM) and Forest Service lands. I was excited to learn about President Biden's Executive Order 14072 that calls on your agencies to define, inventory and conserve these forests for at-risk species, climate mitigation, and other benefits for wildlife and people.

I urge the Forest Service and BLM to:

Adopt a rule that ensures that old-growth and mature forest protections will endure through time.

Protect old and mature trees from logging.

Start now by halting old-growth logging projects that are in development.

Thank you for considering these recommendations. Protecting America's old-growth and mature forests is one of the most important actions the Forest Service and BLM can take to combat the extinction and climate crises.

FROM DIANE WALLACE, FORSYTH County, North Carolina Resident-

Let's protect old growth forests and their species and retain habitat for trees, plants and animals. It will eventually be too hot to sweat. And once the permafrost thaws past a certain point then the temperature of the Ocean will rise such that the methane hydrate frozen at the bottom of the continental shelves and Ocean will be released then

Dear Chief Moore and Director Stone-Manning:

I strongly support protecting old-growth and mature forests on BLM and Forest Service lands. I was excited to learn about President Biden's Executive Order 14072 that calls on your agencies to define, inventory and conserve these forests for at-risk species, climate mitigation, and other benefits for wildlife and people. Protecting America's old-growth and mature forests is one of the most important actions the Forest Service and BLM can take to combat the extinction and climate crises.

I urge the Forest Service and BLM to:

Adopt a rule that ensures that old-growth and mature forest protections will endure through time.

Protect old and mature trees from logging.

Start now by halting old-growth logging projects that are in development.

Thank you for considering these recommendations.

Sincerely,
THOMAS ALLEY
Pendleton, SC

Dear Chief Moore and Director Stone-Manning:

An urgent appeal from citizen conservationist Jeff Wiles of Coon Rapids, MN. Please give this issue prompt and serious attention. And your response be welcomed!

I strongly support protecting old-growth and mature forests on Bureau of Land Management (BLM) and Forest Service lands. I was excited to learn about President Biden's Executive Order 14072 that calls on your agencies to define, inventory and conserve these forests for at-risk species, climate mitigation, and other benefits for wildlife and people.

I urge the Forest Service and BLM to:

Adopt a rule that ensures that old-growth and mature forest protections will endure through time.

Protect old and mature trees from logging.

Start now by halting old-growth logging projects that are in development.

Thank you for considering these recommendations. Protecting America's old-growth and mature forests is one of the most important actions the Forest Service and BLM can take to combat the extinction and climate crises.

Sincerely,
Jeff Wiles
Coon Rapids, MN

Dear Chief Moore and Director Stone-Manning:

I strongly support protecting old-growth and mature forests on Bureau of Land Management (BLM) and Forest Service lands. I was excited to learn about President Biden's Executive Order 14072 that calls on your agencies to define, inventory and conserve these forests for at-risk species, climate mitigation, and other benefits for wildlife and people.

I urge the Forest Service and BLM to:

Adopt a rule that ensures that old-growth and mature forest protections will endure through time.

Protect old and mature trees from logging.

Start now by halting old-growth logging projects that are in development.

Thank you for considering these recommendations. Protecting America's old-growth and mature forests is one of the most important actions the Forest Service and BLM can take to combat the extinction and climate crises.

We need these forests!

Sincerely,
Lisa Harding
Jacksonville, FL

Dear Chief Moore and Director Stone-Manning:

As a biologist and nature lover, I strongly support protecting old-growth and mature forests on Bureau of Land Management (BLM) and Forest Service lands. I was excited to learn about President Biden's Executive Order 14072 that calls on your agencies to define, inventory and conserve these forests for at-risk species, climate mitigation, and other benefits for wildlife and people.

I urge the Forest Service and BLM to:

Adopt a rule that ensures that old-growth and mature forest protections will endure through time.

Protect old and mature trees from logging.

Start now by halting old-growth logging projects that are in development.

Thank you for considering these recommendations. Protecting America's old-growth and mature forests is one of the most important actions the Forest Service and BLM can take to combat the extinction and climate crises.

Sincerely,
Daniel Goldberg
Normal, IL

Dear Chief Moore and Director Stone-Manning:

As a science and environmental reporter, I strongly support protecting old-growth and mature forests on Bureau of Land Management (BLM) and Forest Service lands. I was excited to learn about President Biden's Executive Order 14072 that calls on your agencies to define, inventory and conserve these forests for at-risk species, climate mitigation, and other benefits for wildlife and people.

I BEG the Forest Service and BLM to:

Adopt a rule that ensures that old-growth and mature forest protections will endure through time.

Protect old and mature trees from logging.

Start now by halting old-growth logging projects that are in development.

Thank you for considering these recommendations. Protecting America's old-growth and mature forests is one of the most important actions the Forest Service and BLM can take to combat the extinction and climate crises.

Sincerely,
Ann Marie Cunningham
New York, NY

Chief Moore and Director Stone-Manning:

Strongly support protecting old-growth and mature forests on Bureau of Land Management (BLM) and Forest Service lands. I was excited to learn about President Biden's Executive Order 14072 that calls on your agencies to define, inventory and conserve these forests for at-risk species, climate mitigation, and other benefits for wildlife and people.

The Forest Service and BLM must:

Adopt a rule that ensures that old-growth and mature forest protections will endure through time.

Protect old and mature trees from logging.

Start now by halting old-growth logging projects that are in development.

Protecting America's old-growth and mature forests is one of the most important actions the Forest Service and BLM can take to combat the extinction and climate crises.

T S Kirk