

Logging is a threat to mature and old forests on public lands

Examples of destructive logging on National Forests in Eastern Oregon

August 2022

These are pre-logging photos from the Big Mosquito, Camp Lick, and Austin sales in the Middle Fork John Day

Pre-logging photos of sale units in the Ragged Ruby sale, one of several back-to-back sales in the Middle Fork John Day watershed in the Malheur (along with Camp Lick, Big Mosquito, Austin, etc.). Logging has recently begun in this sale.
