

I have invested in this project. I want to visit it. To me, it makes perfect sense to clean up an industrial waste site, improve the environment, create jobs, and produce necessary minerals for commerce. What's not to like here? The plan is good. It has been analyzed more carefully than a spacecraft. Let's see the government agree with what the people, the market, and the ecologists all agree is a good project.

Jim Wright