

Today The Stibnite Mine site is a mess and only a fool would think it does not need to be cleaned up. This is exactly what Perpetua is proposing to do.

What is wrong with an American Company coming in, making a buck and cleaning up the mess that our forefathers left behind?

I whole heartedly support this project and applaud Perpetua's efforts to clean up the site.

Tom Terteling