

I am writing to share my thoughts on Perpetua Resources' Stibnite Gold project. The restoration of the prior mine and its redevelopment to produce antimony will be critical to the US rebuilding our supply chain. As a retired Federal employee (Army) I appreciate your diligence but hope you will approve this important project.

Ted Kunzog