

We need the minerals from the Stibnite Gold Project and I believe the company has demonstrated they can mine safely and protect the environment.

I urge you to trust in your own review process and permit the Stibnite Gold Project.

Our country needs to become as independent as possible by developing our own natural resources. We can no longer depend on the whims of other nations to supply the resources vital to our survival.

Bobbie McFadden