

Forest Service,

I don't understand how we can comment on the permits without knowing what activities they are actually partaking in? The public needs more information, what activities are these outfitters doing, maps of the camps, do they have any violations against them, etc. Once we receive this information the public needs at least 30 days to make any comments. Please provide more information.

Thank you,

Anna McCabe