

Jul 16, 2024, 6:17:58 AM	Anika Nyman	1605	Mature and old-growth trees and forests protect our climate by absorbing and storing carbon, boost resilience to fire, help regulate temperatures, filter drinking water and shelter wildlife. Logging these trees deprives us of the benefits and beauty of our largest, oldest trees. Your draft proposal fails to protect these trees and forests. The proposal includes many opportunities to send these trees to the mill and allows agency staff to manage old-growth out of existence in pursuit of "proactive stewardship" goals. It contains ambiguous language that could be used to justify continued commercial logging of old growth in the Tongass. I support a policy for our national forests that will: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1.End the logging of old-growth trees and in old-growth stands where fire is infrequent. 2.End the commercial exchange of old-growth trees. No old-growth trees should be sent to mills. 3.Establish protections for mature forests and trees to increase the amount of old growth for the future.
Jul 16, 2024, 5:19:19 AM	Brooke Leonard	94118	Mature and old-growth trees and forests protect our climate by absorbing and storing carbon, boost resilience to fire, help regulate temperatures, filter drinking water and shelter wildlife. Logging these trees deprives us of the benefits and beauty of our largest, oldest trees. Your draft proposal fails to protect these trees and forests. The proposal includes many opportunities to send these trees to the mill and allows agency staff to manage old-growth out of existence in pursuit of "proactive stewardship" goals. It contains ambiguous language that could be used to justify continued commercial logging of old growth in the Tongass. I support a policy for our national forests that will: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1.End the logging of old-growth trees and in old-growth stands where fire is infrequent. 2.End the commercial exchange of old-growth trees. No old-growth trees should be sent to mills. 3.Establish protections for mature forests and trees to increase the amount of old growth for the future.
Jul 16, 2024, 4:17:53 AM	Lauren Nicholas	8094	Mature and old-growth trees and forests protect our climate by absorbing and storing carbon, boost resilience to fire, help regulate temperatures, filter drinking water and shelter wildlife. Logging these trees deprives us of the benefits and beauty of our largest, oldest trees. Your draft proposal fails to protect these trees and forests. The proposal includes many opportunities to send these trees to the mill and allows agency staff to manage old-growth out of existence in pursuit of "proactive stewardship" goals. It contains ambiguous language that could be used to justify continued commercial logging of old growth in the Tongass. I support a policy for our national forests that will: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1.End the logging of old-growth trees and in old-growth stands where fire is infrequent. 2.End the commercial exchange of old-growth trees. No old-growth trees should be sent to mills. 3.Establish protections for mature forests and trees to increase the amount of old growth for the future.
Jul 16, 2024, 4:14:47 AM	Cordelia Palmer	22801	Mature and old-growth trees and forests protect our climate by absorbing and storing carbon, boost resilience to fire, help regulate temperatures, filter drinking water and shelter wildlife. Removing these trees not only deprives us of the benefits and beauty of our largest, oldest trees, but also deprives future generations of the benefits of old growth forests. This proposal would result in many trees being lost and allow agency staff to manage old-growth out of existence in pursuit of "proactive stewardship" goals. It contains ambiguous language that could be used to justify continued commercial logging of old growth in the Tongass. I want you to support policy for our national forests that: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1.Will end the logging of old-growth trees. 2.End the commercial exchange of old-growth trees. No old-growth trees should be sent to mills. 3.Establish protections for mature forests and trees to increase the amount of old growth for the future. Thank you for your time.
Jul 16, 2024, 2:30:13 AM	Laura Cottril	94597	Mature and old-growth trees and forests protect our climate by absorbing and storing carbon, boost resilience to fire, help regulate temperatures, filter drinking water and shelter wildlife. Logging these trees deprives us of the benefits and beauty of our largest, oldest trees. Your draft proposal fails to protect these trees and forests. The proposal includes many opportunities to send these trees to the mill and allows agency staff to manage old-growth out of existence in pursuit of "proactive stewardship" goals. It contains ambiguous language that could be used to justify continued commercial logging of old growth in the Tongass. I support a policy for our national forests that will: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1.End the logging of old-growth trees and in old-growth stands where fire is infrequent. 2.End the commercial exchange of old-growth trees. No old-growth trees should be sent to mills. 3.Establish protections for mature forests and trees to increase the amount of old growth for the future.
Jul 16, 2024, 2:01:22 AM	Samantha Angelos	33004	Mature and old-growth trees and forests protect our climate by absorbing and storing carbon, boost resilience to fire, help regulate temperatures, filter drinking water and shelter wildlife. Logging these trees deprives us of the benefits and beauty of our largest, oldest trees. Your draft proposal fails to protect these trees and forests. The proposal includes many opportunities to send these trees to the mill and allows agency staff to manage old-growth out of existence in pursuit of "proactive stewardship" goals. It contains ambiguous language that could be used to justify continued commercial logging of old growth in the Tongass. I support a policy for our national forests that will: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1.End the logging of old-growth trees and in old-growth stands where fire is infrequent. 2.End the commercial exchange of old-growth trees. No old-growth trees should be sent to mills. 3.Establish protections for mature forests and trees to increase the amount of old growth for the future.
Jul 15, 2024, 11:35:08 PM	Rachael Ellias	60642	Mature and old-growth trees and forests protect our climate by absorbing and storing carbon, boost resilience to fire, help regulate temperatures, filter drinking water and shelter wildlife. Logging these trees deprives us of the benefits and beauty of our largest, oldest trees. Your draft proposal fails to protect these trees and forests. The proposal includes many opportunities to send these trees to the mill and allows agency staff to manage old-growth out of existence in pursuit of "proactive stewardship" goals. It contains ambiguous language that could be used to justify continued commercial logging of old growth in the Tongass. I support a policy for our national forests that will: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1.End the logging of old-growth trees and in old-growth stands where fire is infrequent. 2.End the commercial exchange of old-growth trees. No old-growth trees should be sent to mills. 3.Establish protections for mature forests and trees to increase the amount of old growth for the future.

Jul 15, 2024, 11:03:41 PM	Catherine Mason	93555	Mature and old-growth trees and forests protect our climate by absorbing and storing carbon, boost resilience to fire, help regulate temperatures, filter drinking water and shelter wildlife. Logging these trees deprives us of the benefits and beauty of our largest, oldest trees. Your draft proposal fails to protect these trees and forests. The proposal includes many opportunities to send these trees to the mill and allows agency staff to manage old-growth out of existence in pursuit of "proactive stewardship" goals. It contains ambiguous language that could be used to justify continued commercial logging of old growth in the Tongass. I support a policy for our national forests that will: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1.End the logging of old-growth trees and in old-growth stands where fire is infrequent. 2.End the commercial exchange of old-growth trees. No old-growth trees should be sent to mills. 3.Establish protections for mature forests and trees to increase the amount of old growth for the future.
Jul 15, 2024, 10:57:08 PM	Winston Beeman	93001	Mature and old-growth trees and forests protect our climate by absorbing and storing carbon, boost resilience to fire, help regulate temperatures, filter drinking water and shelter wildlife. Logging these trees deprives us of the benefits and beauty of our largest, oldest trees. Your draft proposal fails to protect these trees and forests. The proposal includes many opportunities to send these trees to the mill and allows agency staff to manage old-growth out of existence in pursuit of "proactive stewardship" goals. It contains ambiguous language that could be used to justify continued commercial logging of old growth in the Tongass. I support a policy for our national forests that will: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1.End the logging of old-growth trees and in old-growth stands where fire is infrequent. 2.End the commercial exchange of old-growth trees. No old-growth trees should be sent to mills. 3.Establish protections for mature forests and trees to increase the amount of old growth for the future.
Jul 15, 2024, 10:52:00 PM	Joshua Macy	98684	Mature and old-growth trees and forests protect our climate by absorbing and storing carbon, boost resilience to fire, help regulate temperatures, filter drinking water and shelter wildlife. Logging these trees deprives us of the benefits and beauty of our largest, oldest trees. Your draft proposal fails to protect these trees and forests. The proposal includes many opportunities to send these trees to the mill and allows agency staff to manage old-growth out of existence in pursuit of "proactive stewardship" goals. It contains ambiguous language that could be used to justify continued commercial logging of old growth in the Tongass. I support a policy for our national forests that will: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1.End the logging of old-growth trees and in old-growth stands where fire is infrequent. 2.End the commercial exchange of old-growth trees. No old-growth trees should be sent to mills. 3.Establish protections for mature forests and trees to increase the amount of old growth for the future.
Jul 15, 2024, 10:35:10 PM	Stephanie Kohnen	86001	Mature and old-growth trees and forests protect our climate by absorbing and storing carbon, boost resilience to fire, help regulate temperatures, filter drinking water and shelter wildlife. Logging these trees deprives us of the benefits and beauty of our largest, oldest trees. Your draft proposal fails to protect these trees and forests. The proposal includes many opportunities to send these trees to the mill and allows agency staff to manage old-growth out of existence in pursuit of "proactive stewardship" goals. It contains ambiguous language that could be used to justify continued commercial logging of old growth in the Tongass. I support a policy for our national forests that will: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1.End the logging of old-growth trees and in old-growth stands where fire is infrequent. 2.End the commercial exchange of old-growth trees. No old-growth trees should be sent to mills. 3.Establish protections for mature forests and trees to increase the amount of old growth for the future.
Jul 15, 2024, 10:16:56 PM	Nic Brooksher	60610	Mature and old-growth trees and forests protect our climate by absorbing and storing carbon, boost resilience to fire, help regulate temperatures, filter drinking water and shelter wildlife. Logging these trees deprives us of the benefits and beauty of our largest, oldest trees. Your draft proposal fails to protect these trees and forests. The proposal includes many opportunities to send these trees to the mill and allows agency staff to manage old-growth out of existence in pursuit of "proactive stewardship" goals. It contains ambiguous language that could be used to justify continued commercial logging of old growth in the Tongass. I support a policy for our national forests that will: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1.End the logging of old-growth trees and in old-growth stands where fire is infrequent. 2.End the commercial exchange of old-growth trees. No old-growth trees should be sent to mills. 3.Establish protections for mature forests and trees to increase the amount of old growth for the future.
Jul 15, 2024, 9:58:08 PM	Hailey Ngo	6040	I'm a voter and business owner who would like you to consider the importance of protecting mature and old-growth trees and forests. Destroying these trees deprives us of the many benefits and beauty of our largest, oldest trees. Your current draft proposal fails to protect these trees and forests as it includes many opportunities to send these trees to the mill and allows agency staff to manage old-growth out of existence in pursuit of "proactive stewardship" goals. It contains ambiguous language that could be used to justify continued commercial logging of old growth in the Tongass. I support a policy for our national forests that will: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1.End the logging of old-growth trees and in old-growth stands where fire is infrequent. 2.End the commercial exchange of old-growth trees. No old-growth trees should be sent to mills. 3.Establish protections for mature forests and trees to increase the amount of old growth for the future.
Jul 15, 2024, 9:56:43 PM	Kiara Oberholtzer	95344	Mature and old-growth trees and forests protect our climate by absorbing and storing carbon, boost resilience to fire, help regulate temperatures, filter drinking water and shelter wildlife. Logging these trees deprives us of the benefits and beauty of our largest, oldest trees. Your draft proposal fails to protect these trees and forests. The proposal includes many opportunities to send these trees to the mill and allows agency staff to manage old-growth out of existence in pursuit of "proactive stewardship" goals. It contains ambiguous language that could be used to justify continued commercial logging of old growth in the Tongass. I support a policy for our national forests that will: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1.End the logging of old-growth trees and in old-growth stands where fire is infrequent. 2.End the commercial exchange of old-growth trees. No old-growth trees should be sent to mills. 3.Establish protections for mature forests and trees to increase the amount of old growth for the future.

Jul 15, 2024, 9:36:22 PM	Jazmin Garcia	80521	Mature and old-growth trees and forests protect our climate by absorbing and storing carbon, boost resilience to fire, help regulate temperatures, filter drinking water and shelter wildlife. Logging these trees deprives us of the benefits and beauty of our largest, oldest trees. Your draft proposal fails to protect these trees and forests. The proposal includes many opportunities to send these trees to the mill and allows agency staff to manage old-growth out of existence in pursuit of "proactive stewardship" goals. It contains ambiguous language that could be used to justify continued commercial logging of old growth in the Tongass. I support a policy for our national forests that will: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. End the logging of old-growth trees and in old-growth stands where fire is infrequent. 2. End the commercial exchange of old-growth trees. No old-growth trees should be sent to mills. 3. Establish protections for mature forests and trees to increase the amount of old growth for the future.
Jul 15, 2024, 9:33:18 PM	Kiera Kenyon	12831	Mature and old-growth trees and forests protect our climate by absorbing and storing carbon, boost resilience to fire, help regulate temperatures, filter drinking water and shelter wildlife. Logging these trees deprives us of the benefits and beauty of our largest, oldest trees. Your draft proposal fails to protect these trees and forests. The proposal includes many opportunities to send these trees to the mill and allows agency staff to manage old-growth out of existence in pursuit of "proactive stewardship" goals. It contains ambiguous language that could be used to justify continued commercial logging of old growth in the Tongass. I support a policy for our national forests that will: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. End the logging of old-growth trees and in old-growth stands where fire is infrequent. 2. End the commercial exchange of old-growth trees. No old-growth trees should be sent to mills. 3. Establish protections for mature forests and trees to increase the amount of old growth for the future.
Jul 15, 2024, 9:21:04 PM	Gavin Siegert	94129	Mature and old-growth trees and forests protect our climate by absorbing and storing carbon, boost resilience to fire, help regulate temperatures, filter drinking water and shelter wildlife. Logging these trees deprives us of the benefits and beauty of our largest, oldest trees. Your draft proposal fails to protect these trees and forests. The proposal includes many opportunities to send these trees to the mill and allows agency staff to manage old-growth out of existence in pursuit of "proactive stewardship" goals. It contains ambiguous language that could be used to justify continued commercial logging of old growth in the Tongass. I support a policy for our national forests that will: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. End the logging of old-growth trees and in old-growth stands where fire is infrequent. 2. End the commercial exchange of old-growth trees. No old-growth trees should be sent to mills. 3. Establish protections for mature forests and trees to increase the amount of old growth for the future.
Jul 15, 2024, 9:17:15 PM	Mike Septak	91932	Mature and old-growth trees and forests protect our climate by absorbing and storing carbon, boost resilience to fire, help regulate temperatures, filter drinking water and shelter wildlife. Logging these trees deprives us of the benefits and beauty of our largest, oldest trees. Your draft proposal fails to protect these trees and forests. The proposal includes many opportunities to send these trees to the mill and allows agency staff to manage old-growth out of existence in pursuit of "proactive stewardship" goals. It contains ambiguous language that could be used to justify continued commercial logging of old growth in the Tongass. I support a policy for our national forests that will: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. End the logging of old-growth trees and in old-growth stands where fire is infrequent. 2. End the commercial exchange of old-growth trees. No old-growth trees should be sent to mills. 3. Establish protections for mature forests and trees to increase the amount of old growth for the future.
Jul 15, 2024, 9:08:48 PM	Chandler Sharp	30092	Mature and old-growth trees and forests protect our climate by absorbing and storing carbon, boost resilience to fire, help regulate temperatures, filter drinking water and shelter wildlife. Logging these trees deprives us of the benefits and beauty of our largest, oldest trees. Your draft proposal fails to protect these trees and forests. The proposal includes many opportunities to send these trees to the mill and allows agency staff to manage old-growth out of existence in pursuit of "proactive stewardship" goals. It contains ambiguous language that could be used to justify continued commercial logging of old growth in the Tongass. I support a policy for our national forests that will: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. End the logging of old-growth trees and in old-growth stands where fire is infrequent. 2. End the commercial exchange of old-growth trees. No old-growth trees should be sent to mills. 3. Establish protections for mature forests and trees to increase the amount of old growth for the future.
Jul 15, 2024, 9:03:34 PM	Solomon Young	55110	Mature and old-growth trees and forests protect our climate by absorbing and storing carbon, boost resilience to fire, help regulate temperatures, filter drinking water and shelter wildlife. Logging these trees deprives us of the benefits and beauty of our largest, oldest trees. Your draft proposal fails to protect these trees and forests. The proposal includes many opportunities to send these trees to the mill and allows agency staff to manage old-growth out of existence in pursuit of "proactive stewardship" goals. It contains ambiguous language that could be used to justify continued commercial logging of old growth in the Tongass. I support a policy for our national forests that will: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. End the logging of old-growth trees and in old-growth stands where fire is infrequent. 2. End the commercial exchange of old-growth trees. No old-growth trees should be sent to mills. 3. Establish protections for mature forests and trees to increase the amount of old growth for the future.
Jul 15, 2024, 9:02:12 PM	Alexis Powers	12054	Mature and old-growth trees and forests protect our climate by absorbing and storing carbon, boost resilience to fire, help regulate temperatures, filter drinking water and shelter wildlife. Logging these trees deprives us of the benefits and beauty of our largest, oldest trees. Your draft proposal fails to protect these trees and forests. The proposal includes many opportunities to send these trees to the mill and allows agency staff to manage old-growth out of existence in pursuit of "proactive stewardship" goals. It contains ambiguous language that could be used to justify continued commercial logging of old growth in the Tongass. I support a policy for our national forests that will: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. End the logging of old-growth trees and in old-growth stands where fire is infrequent. 2. End the commercial exchange of old-growth trees. No old-growth trees should be sent to mills. 3. Establish protections for mature forests and trees to increase the amount of old growth for the future.

Jul 15, 2024, 8:48:01 PM	Julian Szieff	93311	Thank you for your attention, my future depends on it. Old-growth trees and forests protect our climate by absorbing and storing carbon, boost resilience to fire, and filter drinking water. Logging these trees deprives us of the benefits and beauty of our largest, oldest trees. Your draft proposal fails to protect these trees and forests. The proposal includes many opportunities to send these trees to the mill and allows agency staff to manage old-growth out of existence in pursuit of "proactive stewardship" goals. It contains ambiguous language that could be used to justify continued commercial logging of old growth in the Tongass. I support a policy for our national forests that will: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. End the logging of old-growth trees and in old-growth stands where fire is infrequent. 2. End the commercial exchange of old-growth trees. No old-growth trees should be sent to mills. 3. Establish protections for mature forests and trees to increase the amount of old growth for the future.
Jul 15, 2024, 8:35:22 PM	alex martinez		Mature and old-growth trees and forests protect our climate by absorbing and storing carbon, boost resilience to fire, help regulate temperatures, filter drinking water and shelter wildlife. Logging these trees deprives us of the benefits and beauty of our largest, oldest trees. Your draft proposal fails to protect these trees and forests. The proposal includes many opportunities to send these trees to the mill and allows agency staff to manage old-growth out of existence in pursuit of "proactive stewardship" goals. It contains ambiguous language that could be used to justify continued commercial logging of old growth in the Tongass. I support a policy for our national forests that will: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. End the logging of old-growth trees and in old-growth stands where fire is infrequent. 2. End the commercial exchange of old-growth trees. No old-growth trees should be sent to mills. 3. Establish protections for mature forests and trees to increase the amount of old growth for the future.
Jul 15, 2024, 8:31:55 PM	Nadezda Vasilenko	95843	Mature and old-growth trees and forests protect our climate by absorbing and storing carbon, boost resilience to fire, help regulate temperatures, filter drinking water and shelter wildlife. Logging these trees deprives us of the benefits and beauty of our largest, oldest trees. Your draft proposal fails to protect these trees and forests. The proposal includes many opportunities to send these trees to the mill and allows agency staff to manage old-growth out of existence in pursuit of "proactive stewardship" goals. It contains ambiguous language that could be used to justify continued commercial logging of old growth in the Tongass. I support a policy for our national forests that will: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. End the logging of old-growth trees and in old-growth stands where fire is infrequent. 2. End the commercial exchange of old-growth trees. No old-growth trees should be sent to mills. 3. Establish protections for mature forests and trees to increase the amount of old growth for the future.
Jul 15, 2024, 8:27:58 PM	Elisa Lambert	80905	Old-growth trees and forests protect our climate by absorbing and storing carbon, boost resilience to fire, help regulate temperatures, filter drinking water and shelter wildlife. Logging these trees deprives us of the benefits and beauty of our largest, oldest trees. Your draft proposal fails to protect these trees and forests. The proposal includes many opportunities to send these trees to the mill and allows agency staff to manage old-growth out of existence in pursuit of "proactive stewardship" goals. It contains ambiguous language that could be used to justify continued commercial logging of old growth in the Tongass. I support a policy for our national forests that will: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. End the logging of old-growth trees and in old-growth stands where fire is infrequent. 2. End the commercial exchange of old-growth trees. No old-growth trees should be sent to mills. 3. Establish protections for mature forests and trees to increase the amount of old growth for the future.
Jul 15, 2024, 8:03:39 PM	Sidhanth Raman	94523	Mature and old-growth trees and forests protect our climate by absorbing and storing carbon, boost resilience to fire, help regulate temperatures, filter drinking water and shelter wildlife. Logging these trees deprives us of the benefits and beauty of our largest, oldest trees. Your draft proposal fails to protect these trees and forests. The proposal includes many opportunities to send these trees to the mill and allows agency staff to manage old-growth out of existence in pursuit of "proactive stewardship" goals. It contains ambiguous language that could be used to justify continued commercial logging of old growth in the Tongass. I support a policy for our national forests that will: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. End the logging of old-growth trees and in old-growth stands where fire is infrequent. 2. End the commercial exchange of old-growth trees. No old-growth trees should be sent to mills. 3. Establish protections for mature forests and trees to increase the amount of old growth for the future.
Jul 15, 2024, 7:14:30 PM	Amelia Cianelli	26003	The Forest Service must establish protections for mature forests and trees to increase the amount of old growth for our children and generations beyond.