

Dear Sir,

My wife and I are the cattle grazing lessees in the Lacy Lemmoosh Project area. Our opinion is that the proposed project will both reduce the risk of wildfire to our cattle and also improve available forage as well as making it easier to manage the allotment.

We don't foresee any detrimental effects from the proposed actions and look forward to seeing the project move forward.

Sincerely,
Lois Dunbar