Dear Sirs:

Your presence was sorely missed last night as our community discussed the impending powerline proposed for the Village of Oak Creek. Big Park represented us (300 citizens?), and our new County Supervisor Ms. Check attended.

As I watched the sunrise this morning over the saddle, it was hard to imagine a 60' powerline's presence on the scene.

It was interesting to watch the betrayal emoted by so many of your Forest Service volunteers last night. As a former mental health therapist, this one act seems to have erased dozens of years of good will. Many erudite speakers, including the retired attorneys among us, commented on the gaslighting of the FOIA request alone.

As a former fighter pilot and leader of people, the lack of leadership displayed by your non-attendance was breathtaking. As a former nationally-elected pilot union leader and professional negotiator (Southwest Airlines), I saw all the ingredients for community action taught in the textbooks.

Shortsighted.

Scott Brewster
