Comments: I am a resident of Idaho and an avid outdoorsman. I believe that this mining operation would be harmful to the environment, outdoor recreation, and could cost more than the revenue it claims to bring in.

Mining operations bring in short term profit, but leave long-term cleanup costs, and the risk of ruining the river is high.

This part of Idaho is beautiful and needs to be preserved for future generations. Please think of the people of Idaho, and the environment and do not allow this mine to go through.
