

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/31/2018 8:00:00 AM

First name: Mike

Last name: Anon

Organization:

Title:

Comments: This land is your land, this land is my land, from western alaska to southeast. From borrow to the end of the Alaska peninsula. This land was made for you and me. I moved up here from Wyoming eight years ago.

Access in this state is difficult enough. Denying more access would make recreating in the area more congested... not to mention future generations will never see the state in similar eyes that I did.

attachment 1: image

attachment 2: image

attachment 1: image

attachment 2: image