Comments: Alaska Roadless Rulemaking - News Coverage Submission

Please accept the attachment for inclusion in the project record for the Alaska Roadless Rulemaking. The attachment includes several newspaper articles covering the U.S. Forest Service public meetings regarding this rulemaking process, as well as town halls and other public forums where stakeholders have voiced their opinions about this rulemaking. This news coverage clearly demonstrates widespread public opposition to this rulemaking in southeast Alaska and in the lower-48. Please contact me if you have any questions about this submission.
