Susan,

Please find Mark's DEIS comments attached. Also note he said he couldn't submit to the comment e-mail address. He is the third individual claiming they were unable to submit comment to the e-mail address. I believe it is correct. Am I missing something?

I am mailing in my final comments on your Draft EIS to Sacramento as the e-mail address on the web page did not work

I have attached for your reference the letter I am sending in and the shortened and revised more formal comment which you saw in a much earlier version.

I appreciate both the constraints you work under and the considerable effort that has gone into producing a document which fits the current political climate.

Many thanks for permitting my input best
Mark
