

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 4/22/2021 11:04:30 PM

First name: Kristy

Last name: Clougherty

Organization:

Title:

Comments: In staying true to the The Wild Free-Roaming Horses and Burros Act of 1971, I believe it is in the best interest of wild horse populations, native wildlife, and land owners to utilize immunocontraception PZP that has been discussed, reviewed, tested and evidenced to have few negative affects on feral horse populations. Please consider the use of PZP as a viable solution for feral horse population control.

Applied Animal Behaviour Science, Volume 124, Issues 1-2, April 2010, Pages 51-60