

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/10/2023 1:04:35 PM

First name: Anita

Last name: Pomerance

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I feel strongly that the current Telephone Gap project of replacing old forests with young forests by clearcutting and replanting is based on old theories, and has been found to put more carbon into the atmosphere and destroy wildlife habitat and soil health. Old trees must be protected. The attached document describes a plan that will address the problem of climate change effectively, allowing the forest to continue storing carbon and produce oxygen, and providing habitat for wildlife without disturbance.