

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 11/12/2023 5:00:00 AM

First name: Jim

Last name: Bates

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I think that any prescribed burns, including slash and log pile burning should not be conducted within a quarter mile of any structure. At a minimum doing otherwise with mostly cause smoke damage to the dwellings and if such a thing happens, then the USFS should be responsible for the damage caused.

Attachment: Burn Pile within 150 of a cabin.png