Comments: Sounds like your going down the same rabbit hole like Jackson hole.

I started skinning JH in the late 70s. And back then the locals were concerned about the ski resort becoming a Vail Co. And now it has become worse than Vail.

. I remember the Casper warming was a wall tent & we could have a peaceful break & lunch with the ski patrol up at Corberts cabin. Those days are long gone. Going bigger is not always better. We will never ski JH again. And we are hopeful you don't wreck the Ghee as they wrecked JH. Pic is from the first time at the Ghee 1980s before the fire great discovery now our favorite.
