Hello,

The Greenhorn project has disappeared from the list of current projects on the BDNF website, <https://www.fs.usda.gov/r01/beaverhead-deerlodge/projects>. It is also not on the BDNF's list of archived projects, <https://www.fs.usda.gov/r01/beaverhead-deerlodge/projects/archive>.

Please see the screenshots for both websites.

How can the public comment when the Forest Service hides the project website from the public? The BDNF is violating NEPA, NFMA, the APA and the Forest Plan.

I only found it by going to the history on my computer.

Sincerely yours,

Mike Garrity
