Comments: Hell no! Get out of the black hills and never again try to come back. Mining gold in the black hills for profit. Seriously? Carving deficient white men into mother natures magnificent hills wasn't enough? When will you finally wake from your dizzying arrogance. Your pathetic insecurities and realize you have nothing to offer, only taking. Always taking. Go explore yourself. Find some gold in your heart, share it in your own community and do something for your mother earth who has sustained you and kept you alive every single day. Black indians from New Orleans are here to stand with, fight with the Lakota, Dakota, Indians from the black hills and beyond. We are ready and sharing around the globe
