

As a recreational fisherman and regular visitor to Idaho I support the Midas mining project because it will improve and help restore a small stream in the near future. Being a long time "American Rivers" supporter and environmental advocate it is important that we enable projects that provide jobs and benefits to local communities that are sound.

Name: Clark Petersen