

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 2/12/2016 12:00:37 AM

First name: Janice

Last name: Zettler

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Please continue with the same protections for the Chugach National Forest that have been in place for 40 years. Our world needs to maintain purely natural areas to refresh the air, have supplies of fresh water, and to allow all nature's creatures to continue life in a normal way, requiring old growth trees for some species. The importance of these areas will become more obvious as our world populations continue to increase exponentially.