Comments: I recently spent some time in Big Bear, hiking, shopping and mountain biking. I brought my wife and two kids. I was thrilled to see a going green beginner trail my kids and friends kids could now do a family day on the bike. I am in the process of looking at s second home in Big Bear and fully support any trail expansion at snow summit. I am a huge advocate of preserving the land the best way to do this is getting more people into nature. I would love to see additional biking and hiking trails built.
