Comments: Golden Peak Expansion Nurture vs. Nature

My name is Rika Moore and I am a tree hugger.

I am also and foremost an alpine coach at Ski and Snowboard Club Vail.

I have been a coach/mentor at the club since 1992. I am a ski racing coach, who develops the whole athlete.

I love nature, but I value nurture even more. Thanks to this amazing community, of which I have been part of since the early 70's, SSCV is alive and well and growing exponentially.

As you know the club has grown 4 fold since the 90's and offers all snow sports disciplines.

The club is bursting out of its seams, building and training area wise.

The children and our athletes are our most important assets for our snow sport's future.

These young athletes deserve a safe and versatile training arena. The overcrowded space that is offered now, is simply too small for the demand.

Ladies and Gentleman Nurture vs. Nature is what needs to happen to create the utmost of success.
