Data Submitted (UTC 11): 7/15/2017 6:00:00 AM
First name: Patricia
Last name: Stringer
Organization:
Title:
Comments: I remember what the trip into warm Lake was like during the years when the ore trucks and logging trucks would fly down the Warm Lake road on their way to Cascade. It was very frightening and dangerous. I think the F.S. should reconsider the hours, number of vehicles can travel on that narrow mountain road as well as the impact the mine will have on the wild life and the forestation we have struggled to regrow after the most recent fires.