

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 7/21/2017 6:00:00 AM

First name: Jonathan

Last name: Wyble

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I frequent these rivers a lot and any mining along these rivers would be devastating to not only the community of white water recreation, but the wild life that depend on the river. We would all be fools not to look at what happened in Colorado and how mining completely destroyed rivers. Rivers bring life to the area for humans and animals, rivers in Idaho are extremely delicate and must be given such respect.