

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/13/2017 9:58:37 PM

First name: Lauren

Last name: Walkling

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I am an archaeologist who has worked within the forest service for a few projects. When working on those projects, I saw how important it was to protect these already fragile environments. On an economic level, protecting these public lands rather than exploiting them for oil is much more cost-efficient in the long run than wasting 54,000 for oil that will run out. Do not move forward with this project.