

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 11/3/2017 5:25:59 AM

First name: David

Last name: Ricker

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I feel that oil and gas development in the Ruby mountains is ill-advised. As one of the most pristine areas in Nevada, the potential gains are far out weighed by the risks, especially to wildlife. The Rubies contain one of the largest mule deer herds in the state and potentially fragmenting and/or disrupting this habitat is unacceptable.

Thank you for considering this sentiment and I hope it will help to prevent approval of this project moving forward.