

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 11/3/2017 8:23:34 AM

First name: Brittany

Last name: Trimble

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The Ruby Mountains provide vital habitat to a wide variety of wildlife species and opening it to oil and gas leasing would critically harm and endanger many of these species. As a resident of Spring Creek, owning a home just 10 miles from Lamoille Canyon in the Ruby Mountains, I am strongly opposed to this and I strongly urge anyone and everyone to oppose it as well.