

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 11/3/2017 12:58:18 PM

First name: Daniel

Last name: Thornton

Organization:

Title:

Comments: To whom it may concern:

The Ruby Mountains are some of the most beautiful mountains in the lower 48. They are an "escape hatch" for people to use when they need to get away from things and rejuvenate in nature. Oil and gas leases and the roads and equipment necessary to do the work do not belong in this special place. As a fifth generation Nevadan I urge you to reconsider this misguided proposal.

Thank you,
Dan Thornton