Comments: It seems to be the same story over and over. Why is it that mtb and hiking traffic get special treatment? I hike these trails. I bike these trails. I ride dirt bikes on these trails. I volunteer time to maintain these trails. I donate money to help with the upkeep of these trails. And yet, after all of that am once again being told it's not enough. Everyone that respects these trails and takes part in their maintenance should have a voice and a place to ride. Do not take sides again. Open for all users.
