

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/29/2018 4:25:04 PM

First name: Michael

Last name: Sirr

Organization:

Title:

Comments: By law, all Forest Service land must be managed so it is not "permanently degraded."

It you look at the water management map of the Bridger Mountains, you can see the largest area of at risk waters. This will only become worse as climate change and population increase.

Please look at your obligation is to protect these areas LONG TERM. Once these areas are officially released from Wilderness designation, degradation of the entire resource is inevitable.