

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/22/2018 4:00:00 AM

First name: Rev James Sean

Last name: Tyler

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I write in regards to the recent suggestion that regulations regarding bat habitats in Danial Boone National Forest might be loosened. I implore you not to do this. In fact, if anything, the regulations should be strengthened. The bats are endangered and rely on us to ensure their survival. Do the right thing. Put nature ahead of greed. There is always time to make money. Once gone, the bats can not be replaced.