

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/23/2018 12:24:04 AM

First name: Scott

Last name: McLaughlin

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I feel that the duty of the state is to protect it's fauna and flora beyond the level of the federal government. Our native species need our protection. The state has acted in the past to preserve native species beyond the protection afforded by national authorities and I think it should do so in this case. I don't think we need wood so badly that any species should face further pressure. This cleared land will serve no purpose other than lining someone's pockets.