

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/25/2018 11:40:16 PM

First name: Jessica

Last name: Power

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The Indiana and northern long-eared bats are in sharp decline, and are very important to our forest ecosystem. The possibility that the Daniel Boone National Forest would change Forest Plan standards in a way that could destroy a maternity colony is not something that I find acceptable.