

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 4/15/2018 1:59:31 PM

First name: James

Last name: Morehouse

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Simply no. Not now. Not ever. The Ruby Mountains are arguably the best part of Nevada. The impact of oil and gas development here would be awful, affecting water, wildlife, the local community, and all who would come here to benefit from the beauty of the Ruby Mountains in a negative way that could never be justified. Once destroyed by the oil and gas companies, it will be ruined forever. No brief moment of private profit is worth this.