

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 4/17/2018 6:23:09 PM

First name: Amy

Last name: Mirochnik

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The mere idea of drilling for oil in the ruby mountains is repugnant. We need to protect our natural resources for the people to enjoy the wilderness and protect animal and plant life. We live in Las Vegas but we make the journey to the ruby mountains at least three times a year. It is grotesque in a state that has such abundant renewable energy sources that we would even consider fossil fuels, especially in a protected area.