

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 4/17/2018 7:08:02 PM

First name: Cassandra

Last name: Grieve

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The Rubies are one of the most inappropriate places in all of Nevada to drill for oil. They are an iconic emblem of the state's wild and indigenous heritage and they should not be ruined for corporate profits. Fossil fuel exploration in the area could damage wintering ground for our state's largest herd of mule deer and prime habitat for sage-grouse and our official state fish. Do not allow exploration or drilling or mining in the sacred place.