Comments: I think it is time to try and save this place from total ruin, by limiting the number of cars that can park close. It's a shame how social media had brought so much attention to this very special place. I also blame the sign on the highway! Maybe a lottery to get a parking place? or pay more to park . Please do not add parking spaces , unless it is just a few , 3-4 and quite a distance away. It is too crowded now. When I was a kid (50 years ago) we were sworn to secrecy to not tell anyone about this place. Never tell anyone who litters or trashes places , we would vet anyone who may want to see this place. Too late now, but impacts do need to be slowed down and let it recover for a while .
